494 - Singletrail Isskogel (Iss-Vertical)

GESCHLOSSEN!

Iss-Vertical
You went in a larch forrest left at the bridge, now you can expect the most difficult route. The Black Line runs initially in narrow bends through the hillside. Again and again it will be closely between the trees. After about half of the distance you are in very steep terrain. Tight curves, roots and steep descents require full concentration. The route offers here expanse for interpretation, is temporarily natural and peppered with small jumps and drops.
